

A comic strip consisting of four panels. The first three panels show two characters, one orange and one pink, in a sequence of three frames. In the first frame, the orange character says 'ANDROID!!'. In the second frame, the pink character says 'IOS!!'. In the third frame, a blue character joins them and says 'HARMONY!!'. The fourth frame is a large panel showing all three characters (orange, blue, and pink) against a bright green background. The orange character is on the left, the blue character is in the middle, and the pink character is on the right. The orange character has a speech bubble that says 'Windows Phone'.
